FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Mary C. Mulrean, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and a subsequent appeal was dismissed by the Associate Commissioner for Examinations. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner on a motion to reconsider. The motion will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a Buddhist temple. It seeks classification of the beneficiary as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(4), to serve as a monk. The director denied the petition determining that the petitioner had failed to establish the beneficiary's two years of continuous performance of the religious vocation. The Associate Commissioner affirmed the decision of the director on appeal.

On motion, counsel contends that the Service did not consider all evidence submitted in support of the petition.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(3) requires that a motion for reconsideration state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. A motion to reconsider must also establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision.

8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(4) states that a motion that does not meet applicable requirements shall be dismissed.

The motion to reconsider does not contain precedent decisions to show that the previous decisions were based on an incorrect application of law or Service policy. Further, the motion does not establish that the decision was incorrect based on the evidence of record at the time of the initial decision. All evidence was considered prior to the rendering of the Associate Commissioner's previous decision.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. That burden has not been met. Accordingly, the previous decisions of the director and the Associate Commissioner will not be disturbed, and the motion will be dismissed.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
